Call to Worship

Hymn 365 : Ride on! Ride on!

Opening Prayer:

All: Make way, make way...

Voice 1: Get out of the road - all that is bad and wrong in our world, let God's love take control.

All: For Christ the King in splendour arrives...

Voice 2: Not really, he's only on a smelly old donkey and his clothes are a bit shabby.

All: Fling the wide gates and welcome him...

Voice 1: Well it didn't really happen like that - some shouted abuse, other's threw stones, some tried to arrest him, and a few welcomed!

Voice 2: But now we know, and now we come to worship him.

All: For he is Lord of all...

Voice 1: Indeed, he is - of the prisoners, the sick, the sad, the lonely.

All: We have no gods before him...

Voice 1: Nothing compares to him.

All: All other thrones must fall...

Voice 1: Nothing compares to God's way of grace and love.

All: Amen.

Please give this your consideration and contact Alison in the office if you would like more information or to chat through your availability. It would be great to increase the number of volunteers for each duty/task and decrease the number of times you are required to help.

There is a wide variety to choose from and these are just a few:

Beadle Duty at the 10.30am service

Reader(s) at the 10.30am service

Creche Duty at the 10.30am service

Lifts to Church for 10.30am service

Flower Arrangement and/or delivery after the service

Café kitchen duty, waiting on tables or baking

Please continue to bring an item for Dundee Foodbank.

Donations can be placed in the baskets at the main door of the Church. Clients can only access the Foodbank on three separate occasions over a six month period. Your donation enables the Foodbank to continue addressing the need to feed local people in crisis.
